FROM ALL Angles

From miles away to right across the street, the students of Holmes Community College come from all walks of life. While many attend class in person, some take classes from their couch on laptops. Across all three campuses, our future journalists, chefs, engineers, nurses, welders and massage therapists walk these halls to earn their degrees. Our band, choir, cheer and wide variety of sports and musical ensembles march, sing, cheer and play on the fields and stages we call home. Through our diversity, it is plain to see we come from all angles.

Dedication

The 2021-22 Horizons yearbook is dedicated to former Board of Trustees member, James Murry "Son" Alford, who passed away on Jan. 3 following a short illness. He was a former Carroll County Superintendent of Education, serving from 1983-1998.

Billy Joe Ferguson, who succeeded Alford as superintendent when he retired in 1998 and served alongside him on the Holmes Board of Trustees, had nothing but kind words to say about Mr. Alford.

"He was a great man," Ferguson said. "He was hardworking and honest. He was a friend and easy to get along with."

Alford lived in Carroll County all his life, graduating from Valden High School before attending Holmes. After his days as a Holmes Bulldog, Alford attended Delta State University followed by Mississippi State University.

"Mr. James "Son" Alford was a great man and meant a lot to Holmes," said Holmes Executive Vice President Sonny Sparks. "He chaired the Audit Committee for the board and with his K-12 background, always understood and expected clean audits for the college. Regardless of how the board meetings went, he would always end them with a joke, showing his humor and ability to make others laugh. He never repeated a joke and somehow never ran out of them. He is deeply missed by the Holmes community and everyone else who had the pleasure of knowing him."

Alford's teaching career began at Valden High School, where he also served as principal, as well as federal programs director for the district. In 1982, he was elected Carroll County superintendent of education, a position that he held for 12 years.

"He was a man of his word and he was very frugal, not a wasteful person," Ferguson said. "He wanted to help people in general. He was a good-hearted person." Alford was an active member of the Valden United Methodist Church, where he taught Sunday school for more than 40 years. He was also a member of the Carroll County Lions Club and a Carroll County Farm Bureau director.

Carroll County Beat 2 Supervisor Rickie Corley, who was a student of Alford's and later became friends with his former teacher as an adult, remembers him as an extremely hardworking person.

"He was a great worker in the church and in the community," Corley said. "I appointed him to serve on the Holmes Community College Board of Trustees, and I always got positive feedback [on Alford's service]. There has never been a better fellow who lived [in Carroll County]." Apart from education and community service, Alford left another legacy to the people in his community. An avid woodworker, Alford handcrafted walking sticks and gave them away to friends and family. Last year, he presented the five members of the Carroll County Board of Supervisors with their own walking sticks.

"[After he retired, Alford] made walking sticks and just gave them out. There's no telling how many of those he made," Corley said. "I'm using mine right now. He will be greatly missed."

Alford is survived by his wife, Phyllis Alford; daughter, Kristin Kotecki of Winona and granddaughter and namesake, Murry Catherine Alderman of Winona.

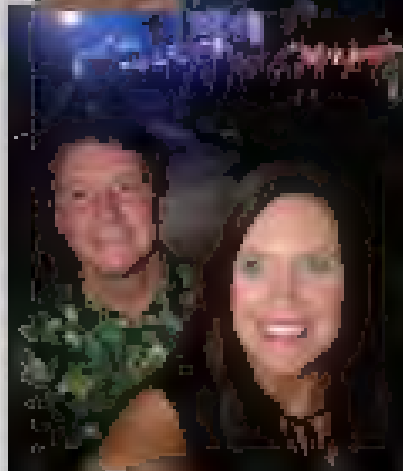

"I can't think of anyone who loved Holmes Community College more than my dad," Kotecki said. "He loved being a college student there many years ago and serving on the Board for over 35 years. He strongly believed in the importance of a good education, and was always a proud ambassador for Holmes. He was a wonderful man, a friend to many and I am very proud to be his daughter. I have no doubt that he is doing an extra 'sly grin' in heaven after receiving this honor."

"It's not really a job. It's your whole life; social, family and work."

Bottom Right: The Haffeyes take a gift card while on campus.

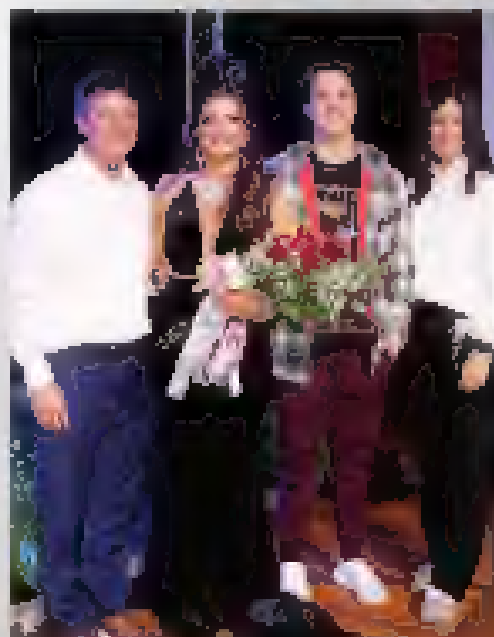

Dr. Jim Hayley is the youngest president in the Mississippi Community College system, but has accomplished quite a bit in his seven years as Holmes' president. This year, Holmes opened the doors to a new Healthplex in Kosciusko; built a new softball facility including a state-of-the-art turf field; built an outdoor pavilion on the Grenada Campus and began offering intramural sports on the Goodman Campus. Additionally, Holmes began offering a new course, Medical Terminology for Health Professionals; added Forest Technology, Conservation Law Enforcement Technology and Business and Office Technology to Goodman Campus offerings; and added HVAC and Refrigeration Technology, Drafting and Design and an Evening/Weekend Associate Degree Nursing option on the Ridgeland Campus. Also, this past year, women's soccer captured their sixth straight MACCC North Division title, were the MACCC/Region 23 runner-up and got an at-large bid to the 2021 NJCAA National Tournament.

Dr. Hayley's family has had a connection to Holmes from the very beginning. A native of Ebenezer, he grew up near the college and always knew he would someday attend. After graduating from Holmes in 1997, Dr. Hayley earned three degrees from Mississippi State University, including a bachelor's and master's in business administration and a PhD in community college leadership.

After college, he worked as a lobbyist for the Mississippi Manufacturers Association before realizing how much he loved being on campus. Dr. Hayley started out at Holmes as a workforce development coordinator and WIA director. He held various leadership roles, including director of financial aid and vice president of the Grenada Campus, before becoming the ninth president of Holmes in 2014.

A typical week in the life of the president of Holmes involves a lot of meetings and legislature. Dr. Hayley loves that he gets to spend time with other faculty but wishes he could be more involved in student affairs. He loves that everyone at Holmes is here because they want to be here. Everyone does their part and helps each other out. Dr. Hayley is a strong supporter of community college education because he believes, "It is the fastest way to change your life," no matter the degree or trade.

As a leader, the first thing he does in a stressful situation is pray and remain calm. When faced with hard circumstances, he likes to exercise, as well. Though it's been a stressful couple of years with everything going on in the world, Dr. Hayley is excited to move forward into a healthy future for Holmes and all of its students, faculty and staff.

The sample size of 90 participants was a compromise between the statistical power and the number of participants. The sample size was determined by a power analysis of the data from a previous study. An effect size of 0.25 was used, which is a medium effect size. A power of 0.80 was desired, which is a standard level of power. A sample size of 90 was determined to be sufficient to achieve this power level.

LaShonda Levy named 2021-22 Holmes Humanities Teacher of the Year

President and Vice President, Council for the Advancement of Postsecondary Education (CAPE) English instructor and Holmes Humanities Teacher of the Year LaShonda Levy and Vice President for Academic Programs Dr. Jenny Haley Jones

LaShonda Levy, an English instructor at the Goodman Campus, was selected as the 2021-22 Holmes Community College Humanities Teacher of the Year. She delivered her winning presentation, "Beauty and Grace: African American Women Writers of the Harlem Renaissance," on Thursday, Feb. 24 at 2 p.m. in McMorrough Hall, room 101, at the Goodman Campus. The event was free admission to the public. Levy's presentation explored how, despite the challenges of being African American at a time when the majority of the country was white, writers of the Harlem Renaissance still managed to write beautiful stories of love, loss, and hope that are still relevant and culturally important presently.

Three Goodman Campus students also took part in Levy's presentation. Akeem Smith, a member of Goodman band, while performing "Joy," "Motivation," and "Hallelujah." Hakeem Smith served as readers.

This is a program co-authorized by the Mississippi Humanities Council, and we are honored to present this award to LaShonda Levy on July 8, 2022, by the vice president of the college personally.

Levy is in her eighth year as a full-time instructor at the college, where she teaches English and serves as an academic advisor for elementary education and childcare technology. She teaches English Composition I and II, African American literature, and African American and intermediate English. Levy has worked in higher education since 2002, previously holding positions at Jackson State University and Alcorn University.

Levy holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Master of Arts in English from Jackson State University. As a graduate student, she was editor-in-chief of the Journal of English Literature and a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. She is a member of the Two-Year College English Association of Mississippi (TYCEAM), the Two-Year College English Association for the Southeastern Region (TYCEASE), and the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE). She also serves as the TYCEAM Liaison for Holmes with TYCEAM.

A native of Carthage, Levy has a B.A. and enjoys reading and watching sports in her spare time. She is also a member of Word and Friendship, Black and Alpha Kappa Alpha University, Incorporated.

Levy, and the other Humanities Teacher of the Year recipients were recognized for their talents at the Central Illinois annual spring luncheon held at the Jockey Club.

Dr. Amy Whittington named to the Phi Theta Kappa Alumni Hall of Honor

Vice President for Career Technical Education (CTE) Dr. Amy Whittington was nominated and selected as a member of the 2022 Phi Theta Kappa Alumni Hall of Honor. She will be recognized during the national Catalyst event held April 6 at the Delta Hotels resort and Convention Center in Denver, Colorado.

A 2000 Holmes alumna, Dr. Whittington was a Phi Theta Kappa officer and an Ambassador. After she completed her associate degree, she was not a teacher and did not marry and therefore did not have a family until after her doctorate. Dr. Whittington is a Phi Theta Kappa alumna. Additionally, Dr. Whittington is a Phi Theta Kappa graduate of the Jacksonville Community College Leadership Academy and she earned her doctoral degree in Community College Leadership from Mississippi State University.

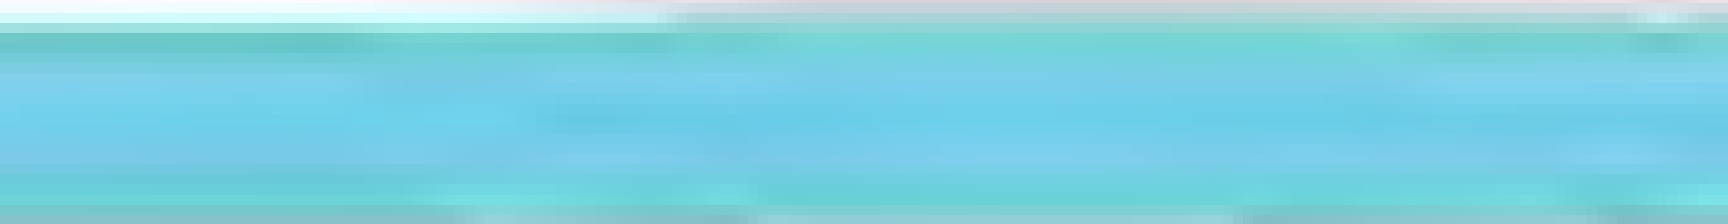

"Several years ago Phi Theta Kappa began allowing career technical students to become eligible for initiation into the honor society," said Lisa Anglin, mathematics instructor and Ridgeland Campus Phi Theta Kappa adviser. "Dr. Whittington knew the impact Phi Theta Kappa had on her future education when she was a member of the Kappa Alpha Chapter. She used her knowledge to promote and encourage membership opportunities in the program and other. She joined the CTE chapter and took advantage of Phi Theta Kappa and the opportunities and support group and membership. She also pushed the counselor to award every classroom and promote membership and acceptance of initiation while encouraging the CTE instructors to promote leadership in Phi Theta Kappa. That same year a member of a CTE program became an award-winning member officer.

Dr. Whittington began her career as a teacher as an instructor in the Engineering, Office Technology and Business Administration departments. She became a full professor for Ridgeland in 2013 and was promoted to district director in 2016 in 2019. Dr. Whittington was an international leader and was elected as a vice president for CTE. Preceding her days as a Holmes employee she worked as an accountant for Delta State University and as an administrator for West Manufacturing Company.

Macey Steed & David Michael Jones

Dakota Michael Jones

Jones, son of Ashleigh Jones, is an industrial technology and architectural technology major. He is a Holmes cheerleader who was awarded the Leadership award from his fellow teammates in 2021. He has also been on the President's List and Dean's List over the course of his three years at Holmes. Off campus, Jones works at Kudzu Nutrition and he paints for Lead Painting when he can. He has also had the opportunity to work with Deep South Spirit helping them on weekends with cheer competitions. When he is not working or busy, Jones enjoys hanging and hanging out with friends and family. Jones' favorite quote is by Abraham Lincoln, "The best way to predict your future is to create it."

"I live by this quote," Jones said. "I say this because I have always believed your future starts now, not tomorrow. My goal is to find a job in the workforce using the AutoCad system and continuing to draw. Drawing with CAD is something I have enjoyed doing while being here at Holmes."

Macey Steed

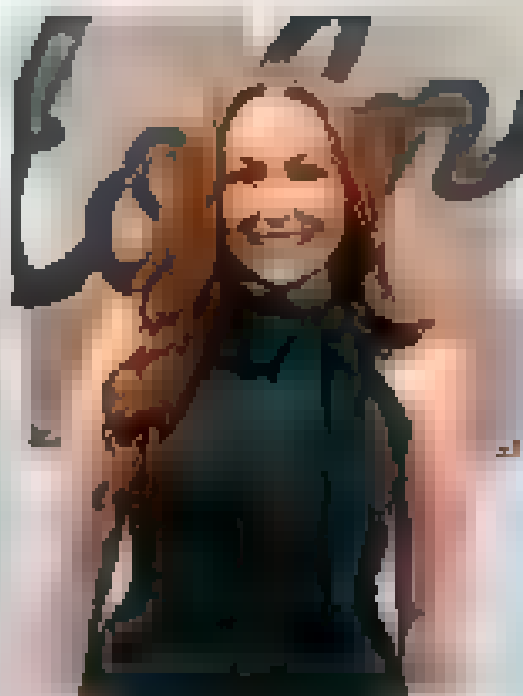

Steed, daughter of Melissa and Drew Townsend and Mark Steed, is a marketing major. She is active on campus as a Phi Theta Kappa officer and a member of the Holmes Connection. Coachmen and Chordie Steed is a member of First Baptist Church of Kosciusko, where she leads worship on Sunday mornings. She also volunteers for youth retreats such as D-Now and Kids-Now. Steed also works part-time at an event venue The Abbie, where she cleans after events and prepares the venue for the next event. Alongside this, she also works for herself through her own business, Cottage Wraps, in her free time. Steed enjoys decorating, designing, playing guitar and spending time with her friends and family. In 2021, she was recognized as a Christian Leader of The Future, Kosciusko Rotary Club Student of The Year and Kosciusko Exchange Club Student of The Year. In 2022, Steed was nominated for the Holmes Hall of Fame. After Holmes, she will transfer to Mississippi State University to work toward her bachelor's in marketing.

Harris is a U.S. Army Reserves member as well. Upon graduation from Holmes, he plans to transfer to Mississippi State University. After MSU, Harris plans to attend law school and pursue a career in law.

Olasade Olayegbe

Olayegbe, daughter of Miriam and Iuwon Olayegbe, is a biology and pre-med major from Jackson. She is active on campus as SGA president and a member of STEM Club. She's also a Hall of Fame nominee, Dean's List scholar, and Dean's Scholarship recipient. Of course, she's an active choir member at her church and the leader and founder of a youth leadership group called T.G. F. Teens Growing in Faith, where she inspires, motivates and encourages other young women to step out on their callings and be who the Lord created them to be.

"After growing closer to the Lord, I saw the potential in other young women like myself," Olayegbe said. "I know that wasn't the only one who had a goal to want to live for the Lord so I reached out and showed love to the young women in my community. To this day, I have a group of 20 young women from all over the U.S. and we are still learning, reading, playing and praising all while growing in faith! Also, I am a participant of "Abraham's Table." After his diagnoses of a rare blood disease called Aplastic Anemia, my 3-year-old little brother Abraham had the opportunity to grant one wish for himself. Although he could've wished for a typical teenage desire, he decided to wish for the homeless to get fed monthly. This has now turned into a non-profit organization called "Abraham's Table" where we go out every third Saturday of the month and feed the homeless. It is an honor to be a part of something so beautiful."

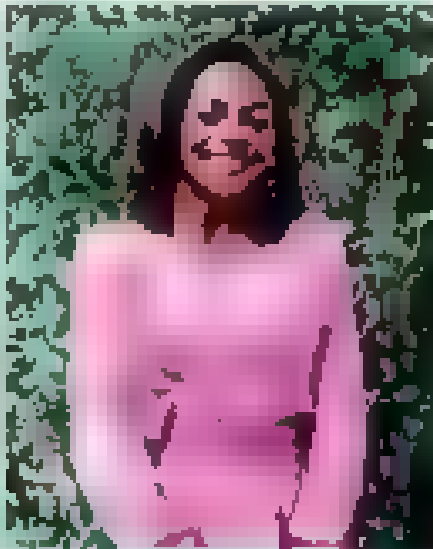

After Holmes, Olayegbe plans to attend Mississippi State University to earn a bachelor's in pre-med. She then plans to attend medical school to become a pediatrician.

Shared Patel, a pre-pharmacy major, is an Academic Achievement Award recipient and President's List scholar. On campus, he is part of MDSA's Student Government Association and Phi Theta Kappa. He also tutors a friend of his at no cost.

Patel plans to transfer to the University of Mississippi and then go to graduate school for pharmaceutical science at UNMC in Jackson.

"I don't live with my parents here in the United States," Patel said. "They live in India because of my mother's health issues. One day, I want to be successful and tell my parents that 'I did it, because I'll be the first and only child to make it in my family. My parents don't live with me, but they still give me strength to work on my dreams even from India."

Lucas Price, an accounting major, was named Mr. Holmes Community College 2021. He served as vice president of Phi Theta Kappa in 2021, president of Phi Theta Kappa in 2022 and was on the President's List every semester. Price is also a member of the Holmes Connection, Cochran Chapter and Baptist Student Union. Additionally, he is an active member of First Baptist Church of Kosciusko where he serves as a worship leader, youth counselor for Fall Retreat and youth counselor for O-NOW. He also volunteers with Shepherd's Outreach.

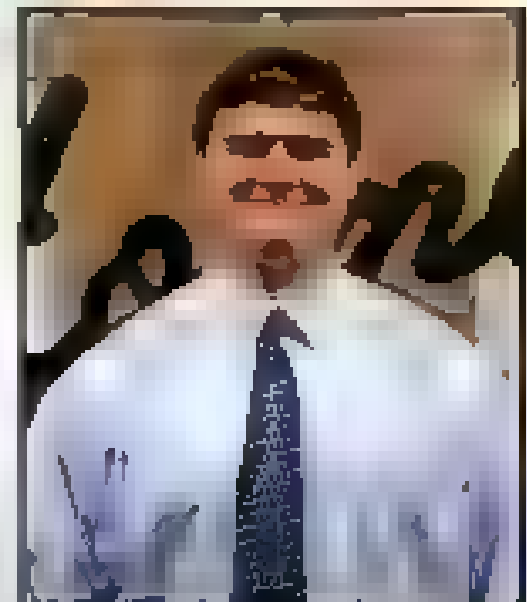

After graduation from Holmes, Price plans to continue his education at Mississippi State University to pursue a career in accounting. His goal is to obtain a bachelor's as well as a master's degree in accounting. While going to school at Holmes is a full-time student and participating in many extracurricular activities, he has also worked two part-time jobs. Price said, "I am honored to have had the opportunity to carry out a work-study position at the Holmes Healthplex in Kosciusko. I have really enjoyed my time working there. I also work on the weekends at The Aisle Mississippi Wedding Venue. Both of these jobs have allowed me the opportunity to grow as a person and accept a great deal of responsibility."

Paul Barrett Wood, an accounting major, is a President's List scholar, AGT Scholarship recipient, Athletic Scholarship recipient and Bowling football player. He was named All-MSCC Academic Team and is a member of Phi Theta Kappa and the Student Government Association.

Wood volunteered to hang the U.S. flag at the Kosciusko Aisle of Honor for Veterans and Memorial Day. He also helped with fundraising efforts for Kosciusko athletic programs and actively participated in various church activities such as devotionals, scripture reading and prayer leading. Wood plans to continue his football career and earn a bachelor's and master's in accounting with the end goal of becoming a Certified Public Accountant.

"I overcame a serious injury with ankle reconstruction surgery that could have ended my football career, but I feel blessed to be able to continue to be able to play football," Wood said.

That's how the new C-130 Hercules transport plane made its winning bid to replace the C-119 and C-124. For a decade, the military had been looking for a replacement for the aging Hercules. The C-130 was the only aircraft that could meet the requirements. It was the only one that could fly at 25,000 feet, carry 100 troops, and land on short runways. The C-130 was the only one that could fly at 25,000 feet, carry 100 troops, and land on short runways. The C-130 was the only one that could fly at 25,000 feet, carry 100 troops, and land on short runways.

The student body then turned to the graduation exercises. The first speaker was the Rev. Dr. J. H. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who gave the invocation. He then read the Declaration of Independence and the Preamble to the Constitution of the United States. He then presented the graduates with the diploma of the school. The graduates then sang the school song, "The Song of the School," and the national anthem. The exercises closed with a prayer by the pastor.

Ridgeland added an evening/weekend Associate Degree Nursing (ADN) program that began in January of 2022. The requirements to enroll are 2.0 GPA in ACT Composite, 3.0 in ACT Reading and 3.0 in ACT Math score. 75% have completed College Algebra. Prerequisites are Anatomy & Physiology and Microbiology and Nutrition.

"We are excited to offer this option to our students," said ADN Chair/Assistant Director Dr. Alicia Austin.

Across Holmes nine-district county the college has students from all different backgrounds with all different interests and various life goals ahead of them. All together now, as a family but coming from all angles

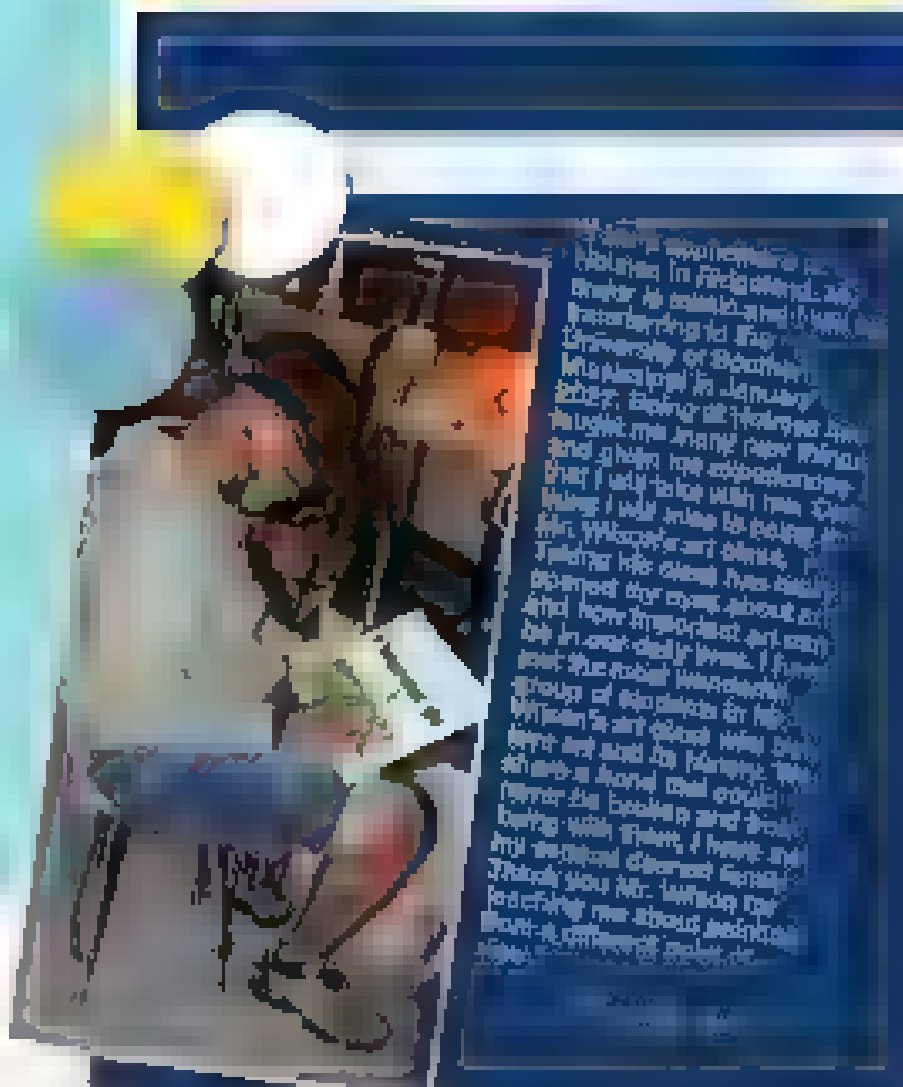

I'm a sophomore on the Goodman Campus and after Holmes, plan to transfer to Mississippi State for two years to earn my undergraduate degree. I like to dance, have workout and hang out with friends and family. The new Holmes is a small college that allows you to make personal connections with faculty and receive a good education. Holmes also gives you many opportunities in sports, social shops. Holmes has helped me make a lot of new friends and learn new things about myself.

I'm a sophomore psychology major on the Holmes Ridgeport campus graduated from Berlinwood High School in 2014 and moved Holmes because it is convenient for me coming from Clarksdale. Also love the small classes, lot of activities. Work as a sales manager for Magnolia Hemp Company.

—Drew H. Smith

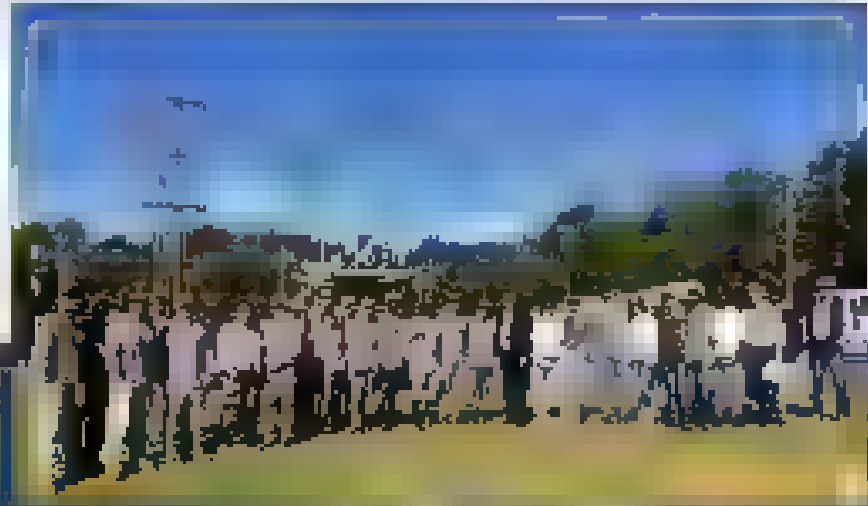

I am a sophomore at Holmes in Ridgeland. My major is psychology. I was transferred to the University of Southern Mississippi in January 2022. During at Holmes I met a lot of new friends and given me opportunities that I will take with me. One thing I will miss is being at Mr. Wilcox's art class. Telling his class how much I loved the class about art and how important art can be in our daily lives. I joined the school's leadership group of students in the William F. and Gladys Smith Art and Design. We share a bond that could never be broken and that being with them, I have and my special classmate. Thank you Mr. Wilcox for looking me about psychology and a career in art.

Sedney Kimble joined the Holmes Family this year, coming to the Goodman Campus as the Holmes center/International director.

Her parents, Todd Kimble and Audra Love Dean, both worked at Holmes for many years as did her grandparents, Bonnie and Jo Kimble. Todd attended Holmes as a student, then was a successful basketball coach winning three state championships. He is a member of the Holmes Sports Hall of Fame. Audra taught business classes and worked in the Learning Department at Holmes and served as the cheer and sports coach. Bonnie Kimble also served as basketball coach prior to Todd taking over the reins, and Jo was a math instructor, both retired from Holmes. Her great grandfather, John David Love, Sr., also served on the Holmes Community College Board of Trustees.

"I am so excited to be a part of the Holmes Family," Kimble said. "This campus has created many fond memories for me over the years. My parents, grandparents and great-grandfather left their mark here, and I am thrilled to continue the legacy."

What are your goals in this new job?

"My goal for this program is to assist and encourage the Holmes family to set goals, be active and step outside their comfort zone," she said. "Intramural activities give students an opportunity to try new things, meet new people and be active. When I think of student found that the intramural program was a place for everyone. The Holmes Center coaches are up for the challenge Holmes family to achieve their dreams goals."

Kimble is a graduate of Yazoo Central High School and has an associate degree from Holmes. She is currently attending the Mississippi University for Women and pursuing a business administration degree. She attended the University of Mississippi prior to transferring to MUW. Prior to coming to Holmes, Kimble worked at Mississippi Animal Clinic, was a server/pastry for the Mississippi Senate, worked at Central Mississippi Cheer and Victory Athletics, worked at the Madison Mallards and worked at Target/Shopping.

Alumna of the Year

Holmes Community College honored Doris Beck of Kosciusko as its 2021 Alumna of the Year. This is one of the college's highest administrative honors. A native of Ette, Beck graduated from Ette High School before attending Holmes. Upon graduating from Holmes in 1955, she transferred to Mississippi State University. Today Beck is owner and president of Menei Meta, Private for the 11 Kosciusko which she built with her late husband, Dewey Beck. Her dedication to the industry led her to serve as a member of the Air Distribution Institute, Mississippi Manufacturers Association and International Association of Manufacturers. Holmes has stayed close to her heart over the years and she honors her alma mater in many ways. Beck is secretary for the Holmes Board of Trustees and a member of the Holmes Development Foundation Board of Directors. Additionally, she participated on the Holmes fundraising committee to renovate and furnish the old President's Home and on fundraising committee for the Chapel on the Hill. Beck is also one of the commission members from the Holmes district who has a painting hanging in the Board of Trustees Rotunda. She continues to be active in her community by serving on the Fumaria Flower Garden Club of Kosciusko as a Junior Auxiliary Life Member, as an Avala County Historical Society Board Member and as a member of First Baptist Church.

Young Alumnus of the Year

Dr. James "Dustin" Gentry is a native of Kaskaskia and a 1985 graduate of Hines. He was editor of the Growth & Honor Ambassador active in the Baptist Sunday School and vice president of Phi Theta Kappa junior-senior. Dr. Gentry received the Michael Kask Award, the W. Y. Sadduth Social Science Award, and was selected for the Hall of Fame as well. After earning his degree in Hines, he attended Mississippi State University where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology. He then attended medical school at the University of Mississippi Medical Center where he earned his Doctor of Medicine degree in 2011. During his residency, Dr. Gentry simultaneously earned a Master of Business Administration and Family Medicine degree from the University of Texas at Tyler, completing both in 2014. Today, he is an attending physician and chief of medical staff at Winston Medical Center in Louisville. He also acts as associate medical director for Quality Assurance and serves on the Board of Directors for the Mississippi Academy of Family Physicians. In 2011, the Mississippi Association of Family Physicians recognized Dr. Gentry as their Young Physician of the Year.

Veteran of the Year

Major Gen. John Wallace, a Madison County native, retired with 39 years of service with the U. S. Air Force. In 1958, he entered military training and graduated as an interceptor fighter pilot. During his 39 years of active service, he also served as an instructor pilot. In 1964, when Major Gen. Wallace resigned from his commission, he joined the Mississippi Air National Guard. While at the Mississippi Air National Guard, he flew second maintenance fighters for three years and twin-engine cargo planes for 25 years. He served as assistant adjutant general as well as commander of the Mississippi Air National Guard from 1985-1996 and retired as adjutant general. Major Gen. Wallace holds a bachelor's degree in engineering degree from Mississippi State University and a Master's Science from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces. He has decorated his life serving his country and his local community. Major Gen. Wallace served as general manager of the Canton Municipal Enterprises for 38 years. Has been involved in the Madison County Economic Development Authority, the Metro Economic Development Alliance, the Municipal Enterprise Agency, Mississippi and the Chamber of Commerce. He has also served on the Holmes Development Foundation Board of Directors and Board of Governors since it was founded more than 45 years ago.

Distinguished Service Recipient

Dr. Brady Richardson was awarded the 2021 Holmes Community College Distinguished Service Award. He was very active on campus during his time as a student. He served as Student Government Association president, played tennis, was voted Who's Who, selected for Hall of Fame, was an active member of Scholar's Bowl team and was a member of Phi Theta Kappa fraternity. He achieved academic success at Holmes and was the valedictorian in 1995. After Holmes, Dr. Richardson earned a bachelor's degree from Mississippi State University before earning his Doctor of Medicine from the University of Mississippi Medical Center. He completed his residency at the University of Tennessee College of Medicine in Chattanooga and during that time was named chief resident. Upon completing his residency, Dr. Richardson returned to Holmes County where he began practicing with Premier Medical group as a partner. He worked for Premier from 2004-2014. Today, he works for Baptist Medical in Mississippi as their emergency department medical director at the Andover and Lake hospitals. He also serves as medical director for St. John's Hospice. Dr. Richardson serves as a volunteer as vice president for the Holmes Development Foundation.

Meeting Minutes

Meet the new coaches

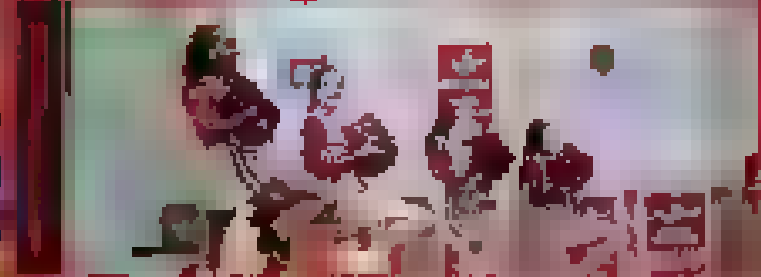

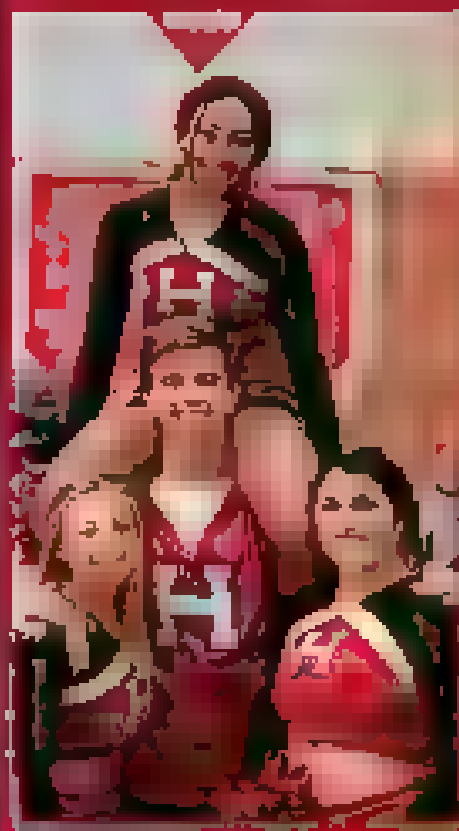

1. The first step in the process of identifying a problem is to define the problem clearly. This involves identifying the symptoms of the problem and determining the scope of the problem. Once the problem has been defined, the next step is to identify the causes of the problem. This involves identifying the factors that are contributing to the problem and determining the underlying causes. Once the causes have been identified, the next step is to develop a plan of action. This involves identifying the steps that need to be taken to address the problem and determining the resources that will be needed to implement the plan. Once a plan of action has been developed, the next step is to implement the plan. This involves carrying out the steps that have been identified in the plan and monitoring the progress of the implementation. Finally, the last step in the process is to evaluate the results of the implementation. This involves assessing the effectiveness of the plan and determining whether the problem has been resolved.

A high-angle, wide shot of a large crowd of people gathered in a stadium, likely for a football match. The crowd is dense and fills the stands, with many people visible in the foreground and background. The image is somewhat blurry and has a low resolution, but the overall scene is a large gathering of people in a stadium setting.

Lady Bulldog Soccer

The Holmes Community College Lady Bulldogs finished the 2021-22 season 14-3-2 overall and capped off their six straight MACCC North Division title. Holmes was the MACCC Region 23 runner-up and got an all-league bid to the 2021 NJCAA National tournament in Wichita. The Lady Bulldogs went 1-1 in 2021 play in Kansas.

Four Lady Bulldogs — Olivia Deslats of Maclaren, Kierylene Wilson of Meridian, Charlie McKunney of Flomston and Laniya Chandler of Southaven — were named to the United Soccer Coaches Junior College Division II Women All-West Region team.

Deslats, a sophomore midfielder, and Wilson a sophomore forward, were named to the National Junior College Athletic Association All-American Team for Division II Women's Soccer as well. Wilson was named Second Team while Deslats was named Honorable Mention Player to the All-American tournament. Deslats and Wilson were named First Team All-MACCC North Division and named to the All-Region 23 Team. The pair were members of the 2021-22 team that won their second MACCC/Region 23 championship and a fifth straight North Division title.

The team finished runners-up in the first-ever NJCAA Division II Tournament early last summer in Evans, Georgia. During the 2021-22 season, Deslats was named NJCAA All-Region 23 and was named United Soccer Coaches Player of the Division II season. Wilson was named NJCAA All-Region 23 and was named Second Team NJCAA All-American and named to the NJCAA All-Tournament Team. Chandler was named to the All-MACCC team.

Deslats had 10 goals and 14 assists this season and Wilson finished the season with 16 goals and 11 assists.

McKunney, a freshman forward, was named to the NJCAA All-Tournament Team. She finished the season with seven goals and eight assists. Finally, Chandler, a sophomore midfielder from Southaven was named to the Lady Bulldogs on defense in two seasons.

"The girls that started the season at season's end all the class room and on the field," said Head Coach Wesley Noble. "Reaching the national tournament for a second straight year, a sixth north division all-league and National Region XXIII and District Finalists. I am most proud of how they continued to push themselves all year despite facing a lot of adversity. The girls showed a lot of character and are grateful to each other for their hard effort."

2011-2012

The 2011-2012 season was a challenging one for the team. We faced many obstacles, but through hard work and dedication, we were able to overcome them all. The team's performance was exceptional, and we were able to secure a record-breaking victory. This was a testament to the team's resilience and the coaching staff's leadership.

During the season, the team participated in several tournaments and games. They consistently performed well, earning them a spot in the championship. The team's spirit and teamwork were evident throughout the season.

The coaching staff played a crucial role in the team's success. They provided guidance, support, and motivation throughout the season. The players also showed great determination and hard work, which contributed to the team's overall success.

The season ended with a final victory, a testament to the team's hard work and dedication. The coaching staff and players alike were proud of the team's achievement and the bond they had formed throughout the season.

The team's success was a result of many factors, including the coaching staff's leadership, the players' hard work, and the team's spirit. The season was a memorable one, and the team's achievement will be remembered for years to come.

has been captain of the Bulldogs for the past three seasons. He was a member of the 2021 NJCAA Region 23 Championship team that went to Indianapolis, Indiana for the national tournament. Because of the circumstances, players could take an extra year of their career and Clark will be entering his 4th Year. Clark will be the Bulldogs' leading point producer and will be a great addition to the Bulldogs' defense.

Men's 2022 season

WILLIAMS

2022 season

BUILDING TENNIS

The Holmes Community College tennis teams were in the middle of their season when the pandemic went for good. But at that time, the men were 2-7 overall and the women were 3-4 overall.

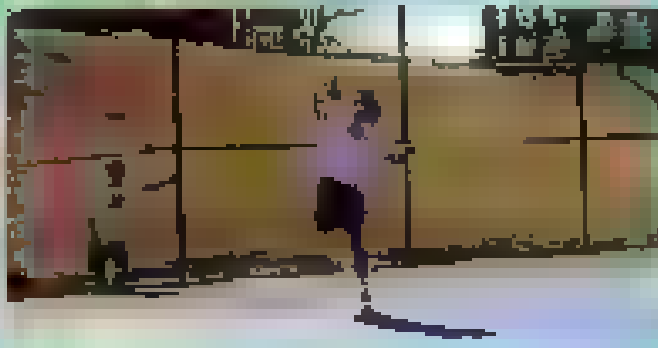

In some of the last matches before the pandemic went as planned, the men's and women's tennis teams picked up wins at home versus Northeast Mississippi Community College.

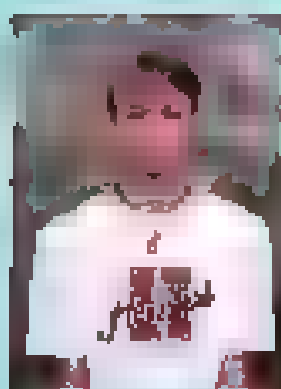

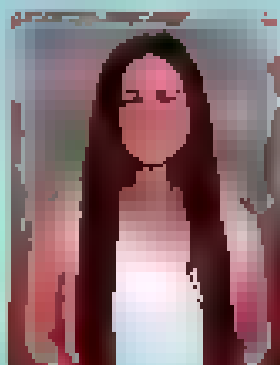

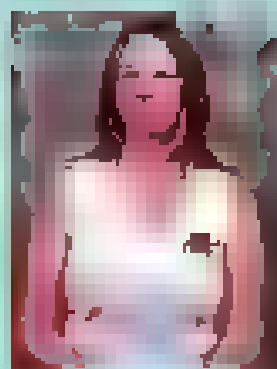

In men's action, Carson Jones, Carter Knowles, Trey Hallmark and Lathan Burchfield won in singles action. J. D. Canfield fell in his singles match. In doubles, Canfield and Burchfield won their match as 16.

Burchfield and Jones. Knowles-Ethan Williams got it all in their match.

In women's action, Amy Peters, Cayley Tiller, Abby Williamson and Rana Paige Davis won in singles while Marie Munson fell in her singles match. In doubles, Peters and Gregg, Tiller and Davis and Williamson and Munson won in their doubles matches.

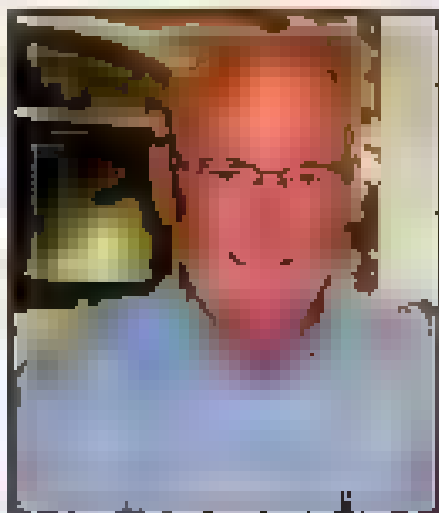

Both teams are coached by Greg LeVert, who stepped into the head coach role in 2016. Owen Taylor is in his first season as a volunteer assistant coach for the men's and women's programs.

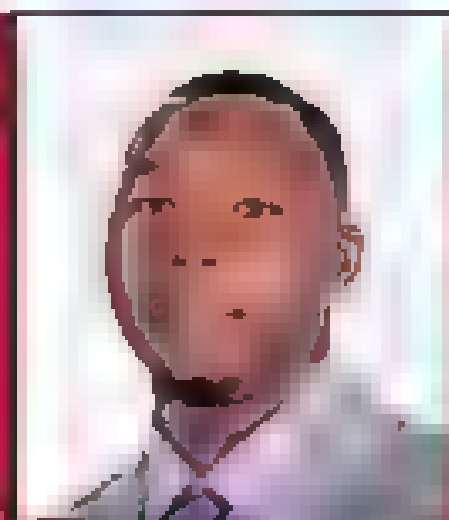

Sports Hall of Fame

Holmes Community College will induct six new members into the Holmes Sports Hall of Fame on April 14 in the Frank Branch Coliseum in Goodman. Joe Lynn Gent (73) will be the Holmes representative being inducted into the Mississippi Community College Sports Hall of Fame on April 26 at a special ceremony in Pearl.

Earley "Elton" Calhoun, Jr., Football

The late Earley "Elton" Calhoun Jr. is a native of Yazoo City where he attended Yazoo City High School. Calhoun is being inducted into the Holmes Sports Hall of Fame for his football accomplishments. Calhoun attended Holmes from 1964-1966 and played football under Charles Darnell, Ken Lauderdale and Robert McGraw. He was honorable mention at All-State in 1964 and 1965 but served as a co-captain at All-State in 1965. During Calhoun's years at Holmes, he was a member of Phi Theta Kappa and voted Most Versatile.

Anthony Carlyle, Basketball

Anthony Carlyle, a native of Yazoo City, Mississippi, graduated from Yazoo City High School in Goodman in 1974. Carlyle played basketball for Holmes from 1973-1974 and 1974-1975. He was a member of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society and was voted Most Versatile in 1974.

James E. Lehman, Basketball

James E. Lehman, Sr. is a native of Granger and graduate of Tohula Attendance Center High School. Lehman is being inducted into the Holmes Sports Hall of Fame for basketball. He played basketball at Holmes as a forward from 1983-1985 under Coach Bennie Kumble. In 1985, Lehman was recognized as Mississippi Junior College Association All-State Honoree. After Holmes, Lehman attended Kentucky University on a basketball scholarship.

Robert Pool, Coach

Hernando native Robert Pool will be inducted into the 2022 Sports Hall of Fame for his 37-year career as a football coach for the Bulldogs. After high school, he earned a bachelor's and a master's degree from the University of Mississippi. Pool then took a position coaching football and baseball at Hernando High School where nine teams played in two championship games for baseball. A few years later, he transitioned to Magnolia High in Senatobia where he coached for six years and had two state championship appearances, winning one of two. In 1980, Pool first came to Holmes as an assistant coach before leaving to become head coach at Greenwood High School. He returned to Holmes in 1988 as head coach where he led the Bulldogs to two bowl games and two state championship appearances. After coaching, Pool became Holmes' dean of students and athletic director. He now resides in Lake Cormorant with his wife, Billy Joyce.

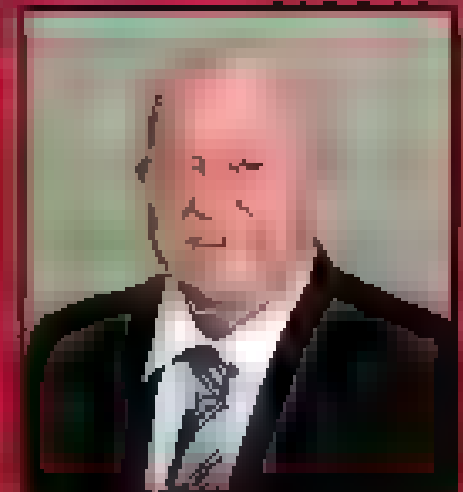

Dr. Dashan Turner, Football

Dr. Dashan Turner, a native of McGuffee, attended West Attendant Center. He played football at Holmes for the 1981 and 1982 season under Hugh Shurden, Andy Wood, and Tony Cook. While playing at Holmes, Dr. Turner was honorable mention All-State and was invited to play in the MJCAA All-Star game. Showing his talents on and off the field, he also participated in the Holmes Choir. Dr. Turner resides in Arlington, Virginia, with his wife Candace. They have four children: Alicia '20, Sydney '01, Brooklyn '19, and Brandon '19. He serves in the Arlington Public School system as the assistant superintendent of human resources.

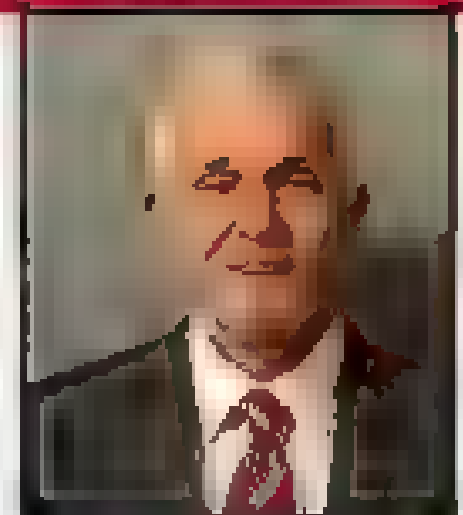

Samuel Allen Wright, Track & Field

Samuel Allen Wright is a former Holmes High School athlete who attended Holmes from 1961-1962. Wright is being inducted into the Sports Hall of Fame for his track and field accomplishments. He had four brothers who also participated in sports at Holmes, as well as three brothers who played football. Robert (football and baseball) and Hilary (track and baseball). During his time at Holmes, he ran the 100-yard relay and the mile relay. He was the 100-yard relay participant that placed 4th at the state meet and a 100-yard relay participant that placed 1st at the state meet. He was a dedicated teacher for 33 years who also coached football, track, basketball, and basketball. He and his wife, Vicki, live in Portersville, Mississippi. He has three children: David, Amy, and Wendy. He is a retired teacher.

Joe Lynn Gant, Football & Track

A native of Vicksburg, Gant went to Holmes to play football and run track. He played football under coaches Tommy Davis, Quimby Morgan, and Ode Burnett. He was awarded Best Defensive Back two years in a row and MVP in 1972. As for track, Gant was the 1973 state champion in the pole vault and hurdles, launching state records in both. After Holmes, Gant attended Mississippi State University where he earned a bachelor's while continuing to participate in track and field. In 1974 and 1975, Gant accomplished All-SEC in track and field, and in 1975, he was the SEC Decathlon Champion. Gant held a 25-year career of coaching football and track at West High School. During his tenure, he won five state championships in football and five championships in track. He also coached track for 15 years at MSU. Gant lives in West where he coached for many years. His late wife Kay was also a graduate of Holmes '73. He has one son, Trey '39, and two grandchildren.

Retiree Recognitions & Closing

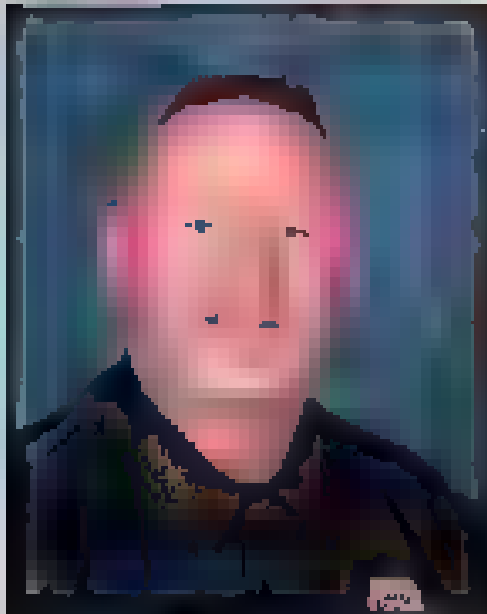

Retirements

Kevin Baker, director of information technology retired from Holmes after 22 years of service in network administration. Baker holds a Associate of Applied Science in computer technology and is a Microsoft Certified System Engineer. Baker and his wife, April, have two sons: Kaleb and Dylan. In his spare time, he enjoys hunting, fishing, carpentry, cooking and gardening.

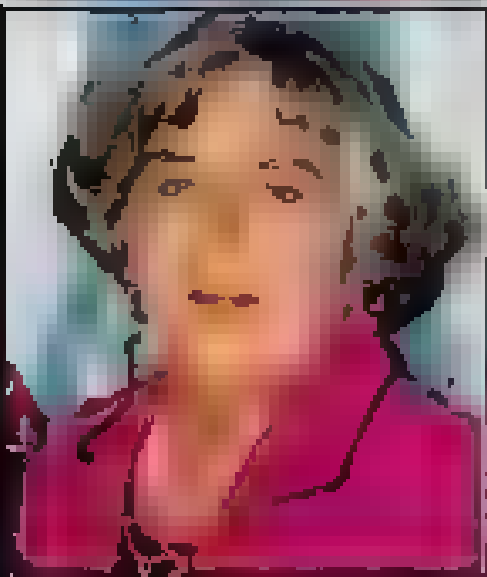

"I'll stay plenty busy," Baker said. "My retirement is more like riding a different horse - have rental property in Starkville, four apartments and six houses, and three houses in Grenada. I also have a Bobcat skid steer. I've torn down old houses, built roads, prepared house pads and done forest mulching. Doesn't sound much like retirement but I'm excited about it."

Lucas Wade Beard retired from Holmes after a little over two years serving as police chief on the Grenada Campus. Prior to Holmes, he spent 22.5 years on the streets of law enforcement in Columbus.

"I started at Holmes on Aug. 8, 2017," Beard said. "I stayed for two years, retired, and they called me back when the chief position opened. Holmes really has been like family to me." Beard said. "Dr. Burney and everyone else was so good to me and the students felt like they were my own kids. I enjoy what I'm doing now, but miss the family atmosphere. I'm proud to say I was responsible for Holmes becoming NIBHS-certified, and we were the third college in the state to do so. I'm also proud of starting the program at Holmes where we help officers obtain allotted government funds to purchase their guns so they don't have to come out of pocket. I'm just so thankful for my time at Holmes. I have such fond memories, especially from cooking at Homecoming and other events."

Beard, who resides in Water Valley, drives a propane truck for Sayle Propane. He and his wife, Tabitha, have three children: Brett, Brady and Hunter. Tabitha is the athletic director for Oxford High School.

Evelyn Bishop of Sallis retired from Holmes after nine years as a dispatcher on the Goodman Campus. She and her husband, Wade Bishop, are natives of Attala County and have been married for nearly 58 years. They have five children, 11 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. In her free time, she enjoys sewing and spending time with family.

Retirements

Angie Blain retired from Holmes after 30 years of service. She is an instructor in the Education Department on the Ridgeland Campus, but she has held a few different positions over the years. Blain joined the Holmes family in 1989 as an administrative assistant in the Goodman Campus vocational/technical department. She took a one-year hiatus from Holmes to work at Brookhaven Elementary, but returned in 1993. In 1996, she became assistant to the district vocational/technical director, and in 2000 moved into the role of director of personnel and assistant to the executive vice president and business manager. Blain switched gears and began teaching on the Ridgeland Campus in 2004.

She holds an A.A. from Holmes Junior College, a B.S. from Mississippi State University and a master's from Grand Canyon University. She is married to Cham Blain, Engineering Technology instructor at Holmes, and they are members of Pickens Baptist Church. They have a son, Hunter, who is employed with Continental Tire in Clinton, and a daughter, Haley, who is employed with Graduate Services and is married to Josh King, employed with B&B Archery.

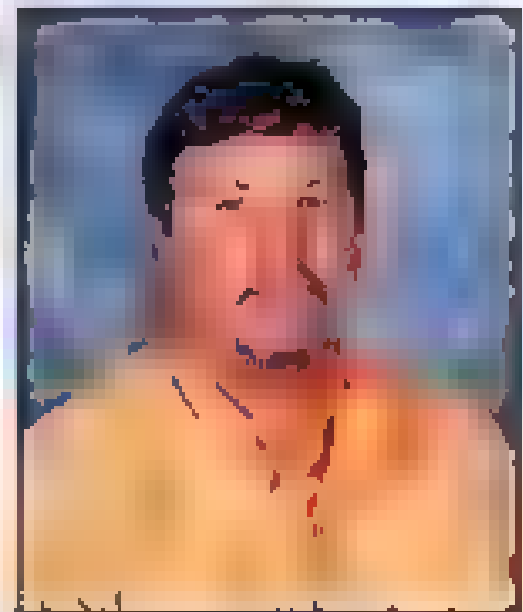

"In retirement, I'd like to work part-time, but I look forward to spending more time with my precious family and friends," Blain said. "I would love for Cham and I to do some traveling."

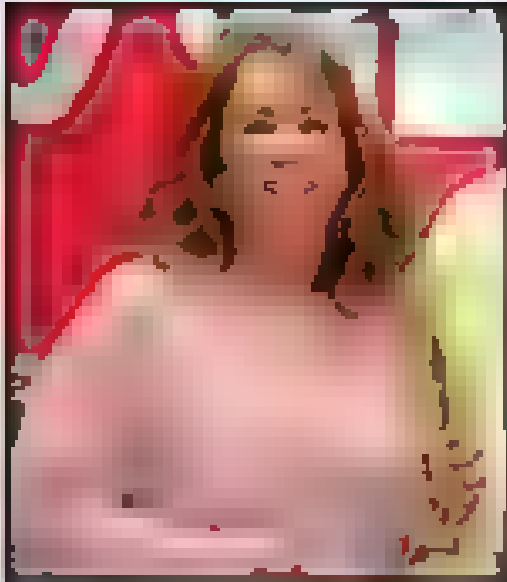

Cham Blain retired from Holmes after nearly 25 years of service as an Engineering Technology and Industrial Technology instructor, advisor. Prior to Holmes, he worked in educational sales for Educational Training & Consultants (ETC). Before his employment with ETC, he taught Diversified Technology for two years at the Canton Career Center and three years at Brookhaven Vocational Center.

He earned the Specialist in Safety and Health (SSH) from University of Texas at Arlington, a Master of Education from Mississippi State University and a Bachelor of Science from MSU. Blain and his wife, education instructor Angie Blain, are members of Pickens Baptist Church. They have a son, Hunter, who works at Continental Tire, and a daughter, Haley Blain King, who works at Graduate Services. In his spare time, Blain enjoys hunting, fishing and spending time with family. In retirement, he plans to find something to do part-time, hunt, fish and spend time with his family.

"I have truly enjoyed my time working here," Blain said. "We'll miss the friends and family that we call Holmes!"

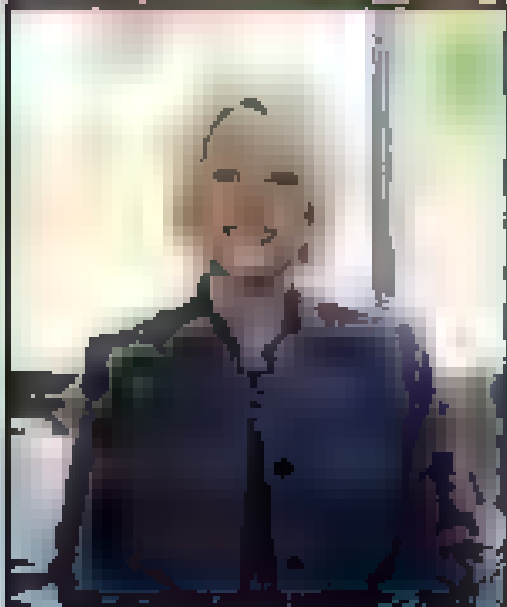

Retirements

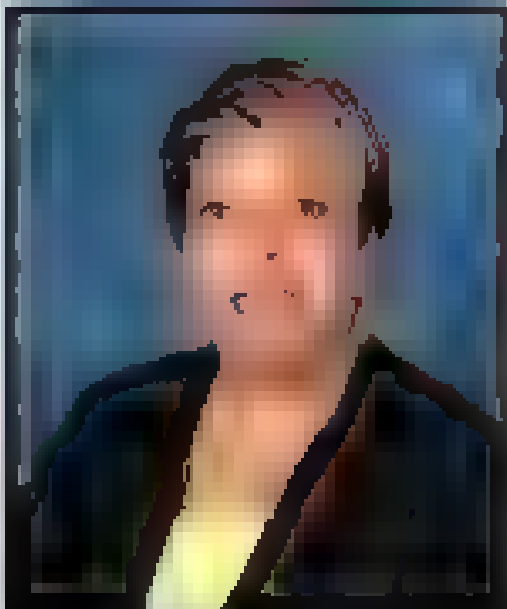

Ann Coleman began her career in education at Grenada Elementary School as a teacher assistant, thus developing her love for students and teaching. Later transferring from the classroom to the Kidzium, Coleman enjoyed several years of teaching hands-on experiences and experiments and watching the excitement in the young faces.

"While working at Grenada Elementary, the library became my favorite. As I shared the love of reading with the eager students," Coleman said. "Fast-forward to the Holmes Community College library and I had the opportunity to teach and help many of those same students from elementary. What a blessing it has been to help students, beginning in GES, continue their education at Holmes. I love watching them transfer on to a university and into the workforce. Thank you Holmes Community College for that opportunity."

Dr. Stephanie C. Dickey retired from Holmes Community College after 18 years of service working for the college and 29 years of working for the State of Mississippi. Dr. Dickey started as a faculty member at Holmes in the Mathematics Department, served as the PreCore Studies Department Chair and QEP Director and accepted the position as Director of Institutional Research and Effectiveness in 2014. She earned her undergraduate and master's degrees from Mississippi State University and her doctorate from the University of Mississippi. During her tenure at Holmes, Dr. Dickey served as the music director of Main Street Baptist Church for more than 15 years and of Pickens Baptist Church for more than three. In addition to singing and playing the piano, she enjoys drawing, poetry and spending quality time with her three adult children: Ethan, Noah and Jesse. Following her retirement, Dr. Dickey will continue her career by working for the Alabama Commission on Higher Education.

Jessica Elliott, program director and instructor for Surgical Technology, retired from Holmes after 28 years with the college. She is currently a registered nurse with Lifeship Mental Health Center, Grenada Crisis Stabilization Unit. Elliott holds a BSN from the University of Texas, as well as three associate degrees from the Holmes Grenada Campus. Her associate degrees include Nursing, Forensic Science and psychology. She earned her teacher licensure from Mississippi State University and an associate degree in occupational education and an associate in surgical technology from Hinds Community College. Elliott is a national officer for the Association of Surgical Technologists (AST) and on the board of the Mississippi State Assembly of Association of Surgical Technologists. She's also a member of Association of Operating Room Nurses and Mississippi Nurses Association.

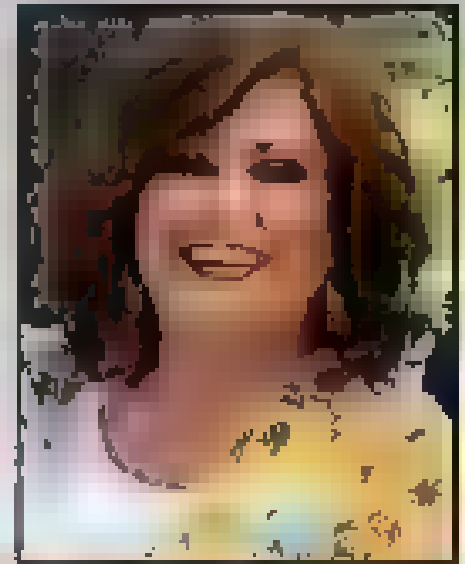

"In addition to working with my national organization, the AST, I plan to travel and spend more time with family," Elliott said. "I will be continuing my healthcare career and pursuing higher education. I also have plans to go on surgical mission trips to Ecuador and Kenya this fall."

Elliott enjoys traveling, painting, reading, cooking and volunteering for Healing the Children. She has three children: Anita, Xavier and Tarilyn and three grandchildren: Kayleb, Corey and Jaelyn.

Retirements

Roxanne Harrison retired from Holmes after serving as an administrative assistant for Career Technology and Workforce Development. She holds degrees in music education and elementary education from Delta State University and Texas A&M University respectively. Harrison and her husband, Kenny, are active members of Collegeville First Baptist Church where she serves as the church pianist. The Harrisons have three boys, Ben, Ryan and Philip, three daughters-in-law and four grandsons, Roman, Maciane, Easton and Benjamin (and a baby girl on the way). In her free time, she enjoys sewing, crocheting crafts for her Ebay shop, needlework, remodeling and playing the piano.

"I plan to spend a LOT of time with my grandbabies, do some remodeling with my husband and just RELAX for a while!" Harrison said.

James Hodges of Lexington retired from Holmes Community College after working for eight years with the grounds crew. The J.L. McClain graduate worked for the Holmes County Sanitation Department before coming to Holmes. He was with the department for 13 years. He worked at Fishwood Homes in Lexington for 11 years prior to that and 10 years at Lexington Products in Lexington.

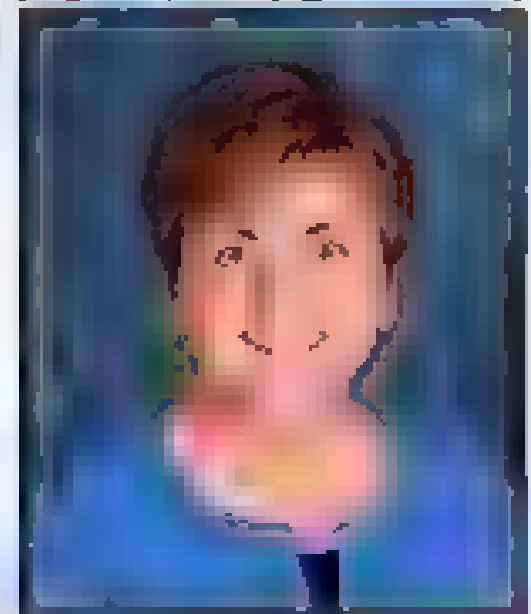

Hodges enjoys spending time with his church family at Pentecost Church of God in Christ in Lexington and also hunting and fishing. He has two grown children.

Pamela Moore retired from Holmes after serving as a Grenada Campus English Instructor. Prior to coming to Holmes, she taught in the Mobile, Alabama school district and at St. Agnes Academy in Memphis, Tennessee. She also owned and operated a bookstore called Pages and More Bookshelters for nine years (before the days of Amazon). Moore received her bachelor's and master's of education from the University of Mississippi. Her professional memberships include Alpha Phi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma (International Society for Women Educators and the Grenada Higher Education Association (local and state member).

Moore has been an active member of the Grenada Garden Club for over 25 years. She is also an active member of the New Century Book Club and a life member of the Junior Auxiliary of Grenada. Moore attends Emmanuel Baptist Church where she is currently serving on the Properties Committee and the Boomers +50 and Up" Committee.

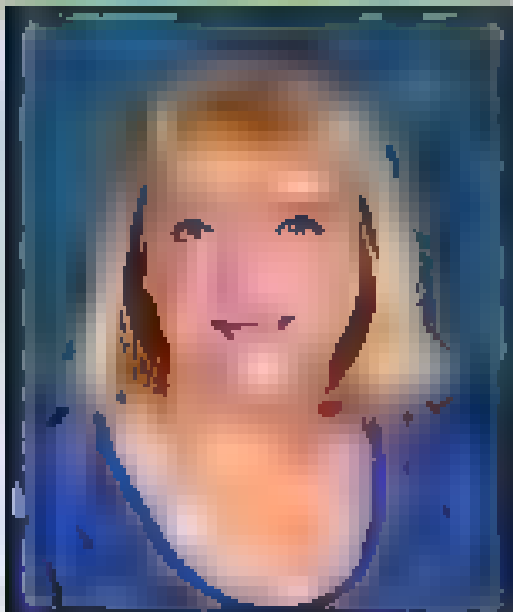

"I enjoy gardening, traveling, reading, playing bridge every other Friday, attending Ole Miss sporting events and spending time with my family, especially my sweet grandchildren." Moore said. "I was married for almost 36 years to the late Kevin Moore. I have three daughters, two sons-in-law and five beautiful grandchildren. I plan to spend more time visiting with family and friends. I also want to get back into my yoga classes, travel and just enjoy having more time for all my favorite hobbies."

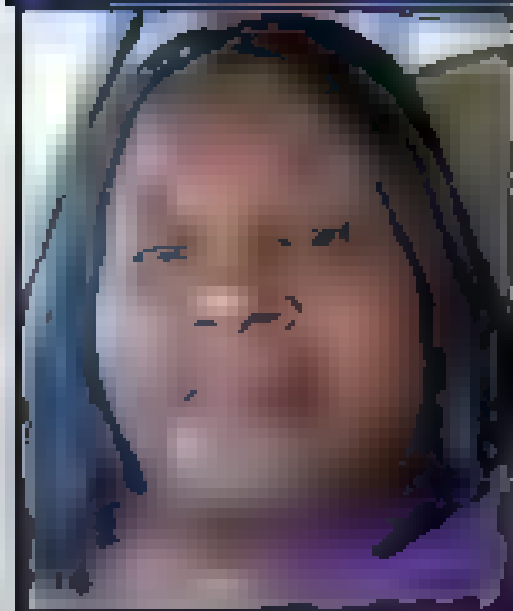

Wyndy Peeples retired after serving as a Goodman Career-Tech Counselor. Previously, she worked as an elementary counselor and taught kindergarten and 4th grade in the Kosciusko School District for 12 years. Peeples holds a B.S. in education and a master's in education/counseling from Mississippi State University. Her professional memberships include: MS Counseling Association, MS Community College Counselors Association and MS Vocational Counselors Association. She has also been a member of Harmonious United Methodist Church for 45 years.

"I have been married to Cody Peeples for 10 years and I have two sons, Ryan Lawrence and Sam Lawrence," Peeples said. "Ryan farms in the Attala County area and he and his wife Lauren have five sons: Sam, Chap, Knox, Wells and McCoy. My son Sam attends seminary in Knoxville, Tennessee with plans to graduate in 2023. In retirement, I plan to travel with my husband and spend time with my children and grandchildren. Gardening, cooking, kayaking and living life to the fullest, making the most of everyday. There are many fond memories that I will be taking with me from my time at Holmes and as part of the CTE family. We'll continue to recruit potential students after my retirement and make sure they understand why there truly is 'no place like Holmes'."

Jennie Pegg of Grenada mathematics instructor on the Grenada Campus, is retiring after 15 years of service. Pegg served as chair of the mathematics and computer science department beginning in the fall of 2016. She has a bachelor's degree in physics from Converse College in Spartanburg, South Carolina, and a master's in education from Delta State University. She previously worked as a medical assistant in Nashville; a mathematics instructor at Bolton High School in Shelby County, Tennessee; district manager of Field Enterprises Education Corp. and a mathematics instructor in the Grenada Separate School District. She came to Holmes in 1985 as an adjunct instructor and has been full time since 2002.

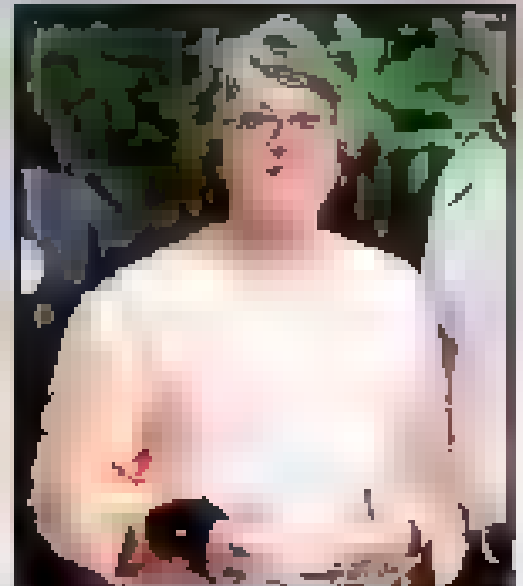

Jeanlean Smith retired from Holmes after 13 years serving in the housekeeping department on the Goodman Campus. She is a wife and a mother of six. Smith enjoys reading, diy projects, traveling and watching HGTV.

"I worked at Holmes for 13 years as a custodian," Smith said. "Over those years, I have met some great people, worked alongside some good people and made a second home at Holmes. After retirement, I plan to enjoy my family, travel a little more, try out some recipes and enjoy life to the fullest. I appreciate the opportunity that Holmes gave me and will always be a Bulldog at heart."

Retirements

Judy Tucker retired from Holmes after seven years of service as police sergeant. Tucker attended Itawamba Junior College before transferring to the University of Mississippi. She graduated Ole Miss Summa Cum Laude with a B.A. in criminal justice and worked toward her master's before being accepted to the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol. She graduated from patrol school in 1962, being only the fifth woman to achieve that goal. During her MHP career, she served as a trooper, was assigned to governor's security and worked the majority of her career in various positions in the Criminal Investigation Bureau (CIB), later the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation (MBI). She retired at the rank of Captain in 2007. After that, she worked for the Madison County Sheriff's Office as a deputy, then served as police chief for Flora before coming to Holmes.

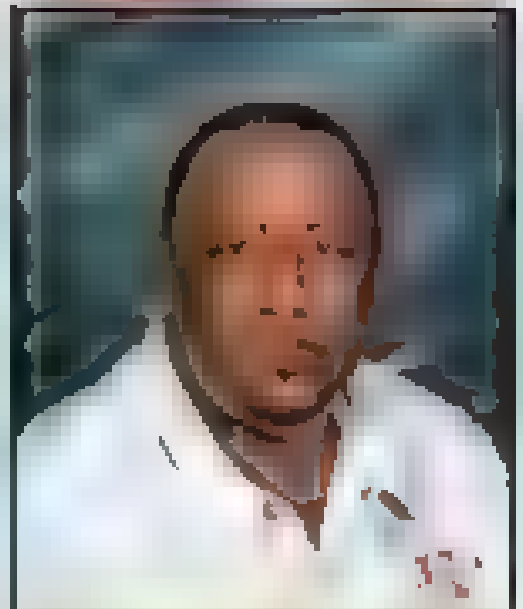

"I always knew that my life's career would be in law enforcement," Tucker said. "Growing up with loving parents and three siblings on a small farm, my family always provided encouragement and support. I was so blessed to work at Holmes, to say 'mae' my Holmes family is an understatement! I'm now enjoying spending time with my husband of 35 years, our son and daughter-in-law and my two fur babies. I spend time doing crafts, riding my bike, working jigsaw puzzles and reading. I enjoy spending time with my church family too. In closing, may I say thanks for the memories. Never take your time here for granted. And, my Holmes family today and always, may God's richest blessings be yours."

Walter "Bones" Walden, Lexington native and current Goodhue resident, recently retired from Holmes Community College after serving the college in several capacities in the maintenance department.

Walden, who attended Lexington Attendance Center (Holmes County Central now) worked at Holmes for 14 years. He started out in the maintenance/housekeeping department where he worked for nine years helping keep the campus dormitories clean. Five years ago, he started doing sanitation for the college.

Prior to Holmes, he worked in the farming industry. In his spare time, he likes to hunt and fish.

Greg Wilcox retired from Holmes after 13 years of service. He teaches Human Anatomy & Physiology, Nutrition and Principles of Biology on the Holmes Ridgefield Campus. He has been in education for 41 years, 28 years in high school and 13 years at Holmes.

Wilcox holds an Associate of Arts from Hinds Community College, a Bachelor of Science from The University of Southern Mississippi and a master's from USM. In his free time, he enjoys cycling, wildlife conservationist and traveling.

"My plans for retirement are to visit National Parks if I can afford the gas," Wilcox said.

Editor's Remarks

Taylor M. Barnes

"Yearbook has held a place in my heart since my sophomore year of high school. When I graduated, I thought my career on the yearbook staff was over but Holmes gave me the opportunity to continue doing what I love with some amazing people. This yearbook makes me feel as if a part of me will always be with Holmes and Holmes will be with me forever in return. Thank you for the constant support and opportunity."

The 2022 edition and 93rd volume of Horizons is a publication of the Holmes Community College Communications Department and students on the Horizons yearbook staff. The marketing department contributes to Horizons, as well.

Founded in 1897, Joetens is the publisher of Horizons. Joetens is an American manufacturer of memorabilia primarily known for its production of yearbooks and class rings for high schools and colleges as well as championship rings for sports. Without their help, we would not be able to provide you with a quality publication each year.

N-Focus Photography took the faculty, staff and student headshots. This is a major component of the book, and we are proud of the work they do. Without the help of our amazing Holmes family, we would not be able to produce a yearbook of this caliber. We would also like to thank the Holmes Community College Board of Trustees for allowing us the opportunity to produce this book on behalf of the institution, its faculty, staff and students.
